

STILLWATER RETREAT

Introduction

Nestled in the enchanting village of Lac-du-Cerf, our cozy lake house invites you to unwind and create unforgettable memories. Perfect for families and outdoor adventurers, it offers a world of natural wonders right at your doorstep!

Hidden Gem

Nestled in the heart of Quebec's stunning Laurentides region, Stillwater Retreat is a serene escape just 2 hours away. Located near the charming village of Lac-du Cerf (Deer Lake), it blends lush forests, sparkling waters, and endless outdoor adventures—perfect for families, hikers, and thrill-seekers alike.

- Lac lefevre serenity: Dive into crystal-clear waters for swimming, sunbathing, or a peaceful picnic. Surrounded by dense Laurentian forests, this private lake offers calm bays for kayaking and stand-up paddleboarding to bass and pike fishing right off your own dock. In autumn the foliage explodes in fiery reds and golds
- Fishing and Boating Adventures on Lac-du Cerf: Reel in smallmouth bass, pike, walleye, or lake trout on the lake's sand flats and rocky points—June through October is peak season, rent a pontoon boat from Lac-du-Cerf Outfitter for a half-day cruise, or launch your own from public ramps for angling excursions that feel worlds away from the city.
- Family-friendly haven—all just steps from your own private lake and tranquil bay. It's a magical spot for stargazing, and roasting marshmallows, blending rustic charm with modern comforts.
- Parc Régional du Poisson Blanc: Venture into this vast wilderness playground nearby for world-class hiking, mountain biking, and wildlife spotting (think moose and bald eagles). With over 100 km of trails..
- Outfitter Experiences: Go beyond the basics with guided hunts, fishing packages. This hub offers everything from boat rentals to immersive nature retreats, making it easy to tailor your thrill level.

Whether you're casting lines at dawn or hiking at dusk, A Stillwater Retreat promises rejuvenation amid wild beauty. Pro tip: Pack layers for crisp fall air and book ahead—fall foliage festivals pop up seasonally. Ready to explore? Your lakeside adventure awaits!
