Hidden Gem

Nestled in the heart of Quebec's stunning Laurentide's region, Stillwater Retreat is a serene escape just 2 hours from Ottawa. Located near the charming village of Lac-du Cerf, this lake house offers a magnificent view of Lac Lefebvre, and blends lush forests, sparkling waters, and endless outdoor adventures, perfect for families, hikers, and those looking to escape the city.

- Lac Lefebvre: Dive into pristine waters for swimming and sunbathing. Surrounded by dense Laurentian forests, this private lake offers calm waters perfect for kayaking, stand-up paddleboarding and bass fishing right off your own dock. In autumn the foliage explodes in fiery reds and golds and winter brings a calm blanket of snow.
- Lac-du Cerf: Launch your own boat on public ramps, enjoy scuba diving or snorkeling in the clear waters. Reel in many kinds of fish on the lake's sand flats and rocky points in peak season, June through October.
- Popular year-round trails: Le Petite Castor waterfall and La Biche municipal parc offer summer hiking, winter skiing/snowshoeing just minutes away. Kids will specifically enjoy the 18 station obstacle course, mountain bike trails at La Biche and the amazing shallow beach. Adults can play on their own mountain bike trail as well.
- Poisson Blanc Regional Parc: For more adventurous experiences, venture 45 min away into this vast wilderness playground for world-class hiking, mountain biking, and wildlife spotting (think moose and bald eagles). With over 100 km of trails.

Whether you're casting lines at dawn or hiking at dusk, Stillwater Retreat promises rejuvenation amid wild beauty. You will feel worlds away from the city. Pro tip: Pack layers for crisp fall air and book ahead. Ready to explore? Your lakeside retreat awaits!
